Dear Sir/Madam,

You may have heard about the forthcoming changes to data protection laws, which govern how we communicate with our customers. You will now have greater control over your personal data.

Please be assured that we will never give any of your details to any third parties.

We've made a few changes to our privacy policy so you can see and understand what personal information we hold on you.

These are as follows

All-Clear Skip Hire Privacy policy 2018

What information do we collect ?

We generally collect personal information ie Name, address your customers address and other contact information (this is usually provided by you) and we will take reasonable steps to ensure this information is kept safe.

What do we do with the information we collect?

We use the information you give us to primarily fulfil your orders, managing your account and dealing with queries.

How long do we hold your information for?

We hold personal information for seven years from the date of your last order, this is in line with legal and tax requirement.

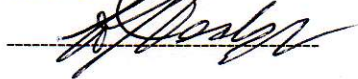

How do I control my personal information?

Please contact us if you feel you'd like to correct or update our information held on you, you can request that we no longer hold addresses, names, phone numbers etc but please be aware that copies of all our invoices are kept for seven years for legal and tax purposes and cannot be erased,

However please be assured that this information is stored in a locked area which is manned during the day and the site is covered by security guards at night.

If you require any further assistance with this matter please contact us.

Yours Sincerely

All-Clear Skip Hire Ltd.
